

Instructions for Motion for Order to: 1) Hold Hearing at an Alternate Location; OR 2) Allow Non-Attendance at Hearing.

Important! Read Before Using this Packet of Forms.

ND Legal Self Help staff and court employees can't help you fill out the form(s). If you're unsure if these forms and instructions suit your circumstances, consult a lawyer.

If you need legal advice or legal representation, consult a lawyer licensed to practice in North Dakota. Go to ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/finding-a-lawyer for information about finding a lawyer to represent you.

When you represent yourself, you're expected to know and follow the law, including:

- State or federal laws that apply to your case;
- Case law, also called court opinions, that applies to your case; and
- Court rules that apply to your case, which may include:
 - North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure;
 - North Dakota Rules of Court;
 - North Dakota Rules of Evidence;
 - North Dakota Administrative Rules and Orders; and
 - Any local court rules.

Links to the state laws, case law, and court rules can be found at ndcourts.gov.

A glossary with definitions of legal terms is available at ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help.

When you represent yourself, you're held to the same requirements and responsibilities as a lawyer, even if you don't understand the rules or procedures.

These instructions and forms aren't a complete statement of the law. They cover the basic procedure for asking a North Dakota district court in a guardianship case to hold a hearing at a location other than a courthouse, or to allow the person subject to guardianship not to attend the hearing. There's no guarantee that all judges and courts will accept forms available through the ND Legal Self Help Center. The Center isn't responsible for any consequences that may result from the forms or information provided.

Use these forms and instructions at your own risk.

You May Use this Packet of Forms if:

You're asking to become the guardian of an adult OR you're the current guardian of an adult in a North Dakota state district court guardianship case.

AND

You've been notified by the district court that a hearing will be held in the guardianship case:

AND

You want to ask the district court to do one of the following for the benefit of the person subject to guardianship:

1. Hold the hearing at an alternate location (i.e. nursing home), rather than hold the hearing at the courthouse; OR
2. Allow the person subject to guardianship not to attend the hearing at all.

You may use this packet of forms to request both options. If you ask for both options, you'll tell the district court which option you prefer.

Can I Use this Packet of Forms to Ask for the Hearing to be Held Remotely or to Appear at a Hearing Electronically?

No. You can't use this packet of forms to ask the district court to hold a hearing by remote means (reliable electronic means), or to allow you or someone else to appear at a hearing remotely (reliable electronic means).

However, a different set of forms to make these types of requests in a guardianship case is available at ndcourts.gov/legal-self-help/adult-guardianship. Scroll to the "Requests Related to Appearing at Hearings" section.

Make Copies of Completed Forms 1-5 and Any Additional Documents

Determine the Non-moving parties you need to serve and their addresses.

- Refer to Page 3 of these instructions to help you determine who the Non-moving parties are in your motion.

You'll need a copy of the following completed forms and other documents for each Non-moving party:

- Form 1: Notice of Motion for Order
- Form 2: Motion for Order
- Form 3: Brief in Support of Motion for Order
- Form 4: Declaration in Support of Motion for Order
 - Any additional documents listed in Paragraph 5 of the Declaration.
- Form 5: (Proposed) Order on Motion for Order

Make one copy of the completed forms for your records.

Step 2: Arrange for Service of Copies of Form 1 through Form 5 on All Non-Moving Parties.

Service is providing copies of your completed motion documents on all Non-moving Parties. The court won't act on your motion documents until you file proof of service with the court. A declaration of service gives the court proof of service.

Copies may be mailed first class, postage prepaid, or hand-delivered.

Form 6: Declaration of Service by Mail:

You may arrange for service of the copies of the motion documents by mail.

For each Non-moving party you serve by mail:

- Put the copies in an envelope.
- Address the envelope with the Non-moving party's last known address.
- If you know the Non-moving party is currently represented by a lawyer, address the envelope with the lawyer's address.
- List your address as the return address on the envelope.
- Put the correct first class postage on the envelope.
 - Postage must be first class and prepaid.
 - It's very important to put the correct postage on the envelope. If you don't, the envelope may be returned to you causing delays. Delays may cost you the option of making this motion before the hearing date.
- Service is complete upon mailing.

The person who mailed the envelope(s) fills out the Form 6: Declaration of Service by Mail.

If the envelope is mailed at a United States Post Office. The Post Office employee doesn't complete Form 6. The person who took the envelope to the Post Office completes the form.

Complete the Caption exactly as the Caption of the Form 1: Notice is filled out.

- Follow the directions on the form.

Make ONE COPY of each completed Form 6: Declaration of Service by Mail for your records.

You'll file the original with the Clerk of District Court in Step 3.

Form 7: Declaration of Service by Hand Delivery:

You may arrange for service of the copies of the motion documents by hand delivery.

For each Non-moving party you arrange to serve by hand delivery:

- Give copies of the motion documents and the location of the Non-moving party to a person who is at least 18 years old, not a party to or interested in the guardianship case.
- A person who is at least 18 years old, NOT a party to or interested in the guardianship case hands the copies of the motion documents to the Non-moving party.
 - Service is complete upon handing the copies of the motion documents to the Non-moving party.

The person who handed the copies of motion documents to the Non-moving party fills out Form 7: Declaration of Service by Hand Delivery.

Complete the Caption exactly as the Caption of the Form 1: Notice is filled out.

- Follow the directions on the form.
- The person who handed the copies of motion documents to the Non-moving party dates and signs the form.

Make ONE COPY of each completed Form 7: Declaration of Service by Hand Delivery for your records.

You'll file the original(s) with the Clerk of District Court in Step 3.

Step 3: File Completed, Original Form 1 through Form 5 and Declaration(s) of Service with the Clerk of Court.

File the following completed, original forms with the Clerk of Court:

- Form 1: Notice of Motion for Order
- Form 2: Motion for Order
- Form 3: Brief in Support of Motion for Order
- Form 4: Declaration in Support of Motion for Order
- Form 5: (Proposed) Order on Motion for Order
- Declaration(s) of Service for each Non-moving party
 - May be Form 6, Form 7 or both, depending on how you arranged for service.

File copies of the following with the Clerk of Court:

- All additional documents listed in Paragraph 5 of Form 4: Declaration in Support of Motion for Order
 - You may not have any additional documents.

Step 4: Non-Moving Parties Have Either 14 or 17 Days to Answer.

After the Non-moving party is served your motion documents, the Non-moving party has either 14 or 17 days to answer the motion in writing, depending on how you arranged for service.

If you arranged for service by mail:

If you arranged for service of your motion documents by mail or third-party commercial carrier, the Non-moving party has 17 calendar days to answer your motion.

- The date of service is the date the motion documents were mailed.

If you arranged for service by hand delivery:

If you arranged for service of your motion documents by hand delivery, the Non-moving party has 14 calendar days to answer your motion.

- The date of service is the date the motion documents were handed to the Non-moving party.

Calculating service days:

- Don't include the date of service that triggers the start of the period;
- Count by calendar days, including Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays; and
- Include the last day of the period, but if the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the period continues to run until the end of the next day that isn't a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

If a Non-moving party serves and files a written answer within the deadline:

The District Court will consider the written answer when deciding whether to approve or deny your motion.

If a Non-moving party DOESN'T serve and file a written answer within the deadline:

The District Court may consider the lack of a written answer to be an admission by the Non-moving party that your motion has merit. The Court will decide the motion based on the motion documents you served and filed.

Step 5: The District Court Decides Whether to Grant the Motion.

After the deadline for serving and filing the written answer has passed, the motion is considered to be submitted to the District Court.

The Judicial Officer assigned to the case reviews the motion documents submitted by you, the Moving party, and any Non-moving party to determine if you meet the requirements for granting your motion.

You'll receive the decision in writing.

If your motion is granted:

If the District Court grants your motion, follow the instructions, if any.

If your motion is denied:

If the District Court DOESN'T grant your motion, you and the person subject to guardianship must attend the hearing in person.
